Le Coquin is an Al Khamsa horse of the *Mirage line. Al Khamsa horses are of early foundation Arabian lines. There are many families within this group and the *Mirage line is very rare among these as well as being rarely found in other Arabian lines today. *Mirage was noted for gentleness, beauty and superb action among other qualities. He was a champion both in England and the United states. This is a really kind and willing horse! He is well started under saddle and has excellent legs and feet, and is showing a eager to please and learn attitude. Currently in training. with 90 days already under his belt. His owner would like to retain 4 breedings

Le Coquin is offered at $3,500.00.
